Ang Mo Kio Town Design Guide

Every HDB town is planned with its own distinct character and features that reflect the town's history. With different agencies and the town councils carrying out regular enhancements and improvements throughout the life cycle of the town, it is important to align all the different agencies' efforts and ensure a coherent design and town identity.

Hence, HDB as the master planner, is publishing a De councils, and their design consultants, as they carry out improvements to the towns in the years to come. In this way, we continue to strengthen the identity of each town, preserve their distinctive local flavour, and deepen the sense of belonging among residents to their home.

Here, we present the Town Design Guide for Ang Mo Kie

Town Theme: Bridging Nature & Communities

Inspired by how bridges ("Kio" is Hokkien for "bridge"), as well as nature and connecting communities are key to the town's identity, the town theme is aligned with the ROH vision for Ang Mo Kio.

Based on the town's existing context, three sub-theme were then formulated: Learning Gardens; Delightful Urban Valley; Gateway to the Parks. These guide HDB's design and planning of Ang Mo Kin
