Presented By:

Key Partner:

Participating Agencies:

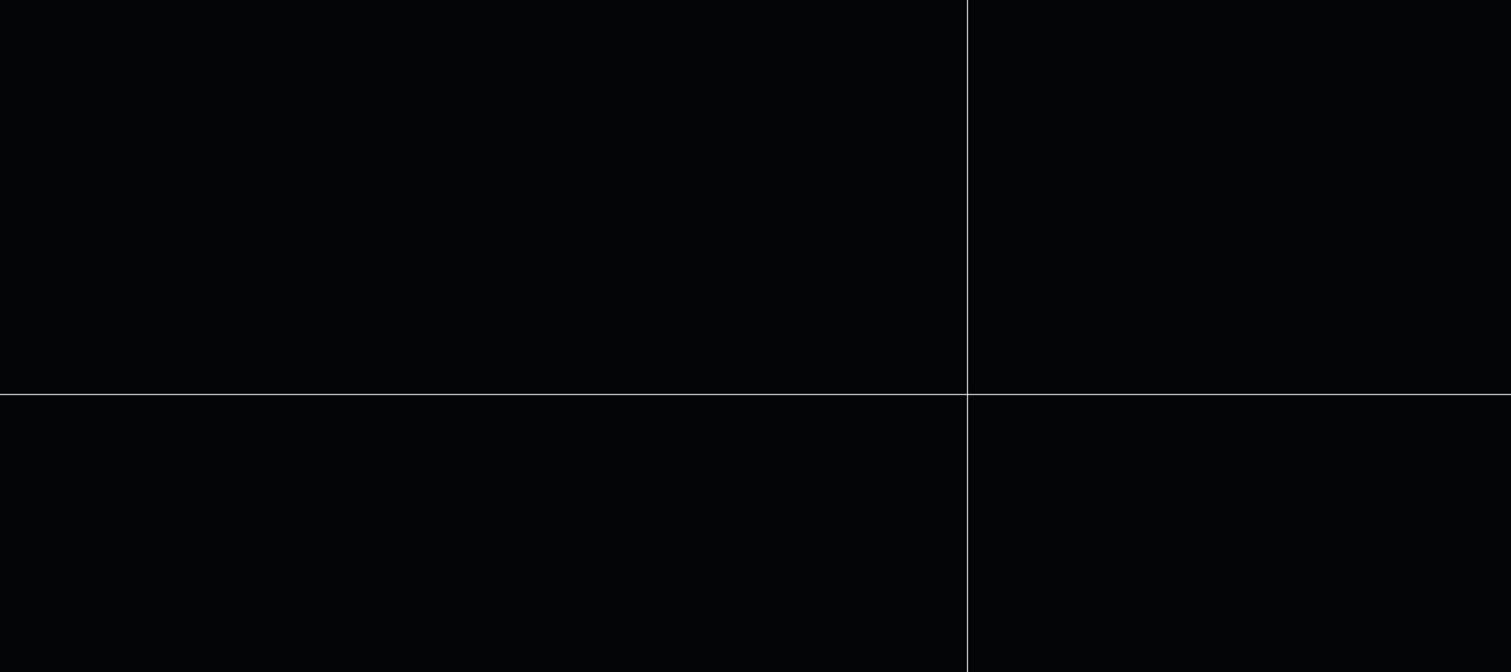

Launched in 2007, the Remaking Our Heartland initiative aims to rejuvenate public housing estates to bring about a holistic transformation. Punggol, Yishun and Dawson were the first three towns / estates to be upgraded under this initiative.

In 2011, three more areas will be included under the Remaking Our Heartland programme.

East Coast is one of them!

Join us to find out more about the new plans coming

Vision

A well-connected Gateway to the East Coast, with enriched identity, active communities & easy access to recreational destinations.

The plans to revitalise East Coast will focus on 4 key areas:

