

HERITAGE TRAIL

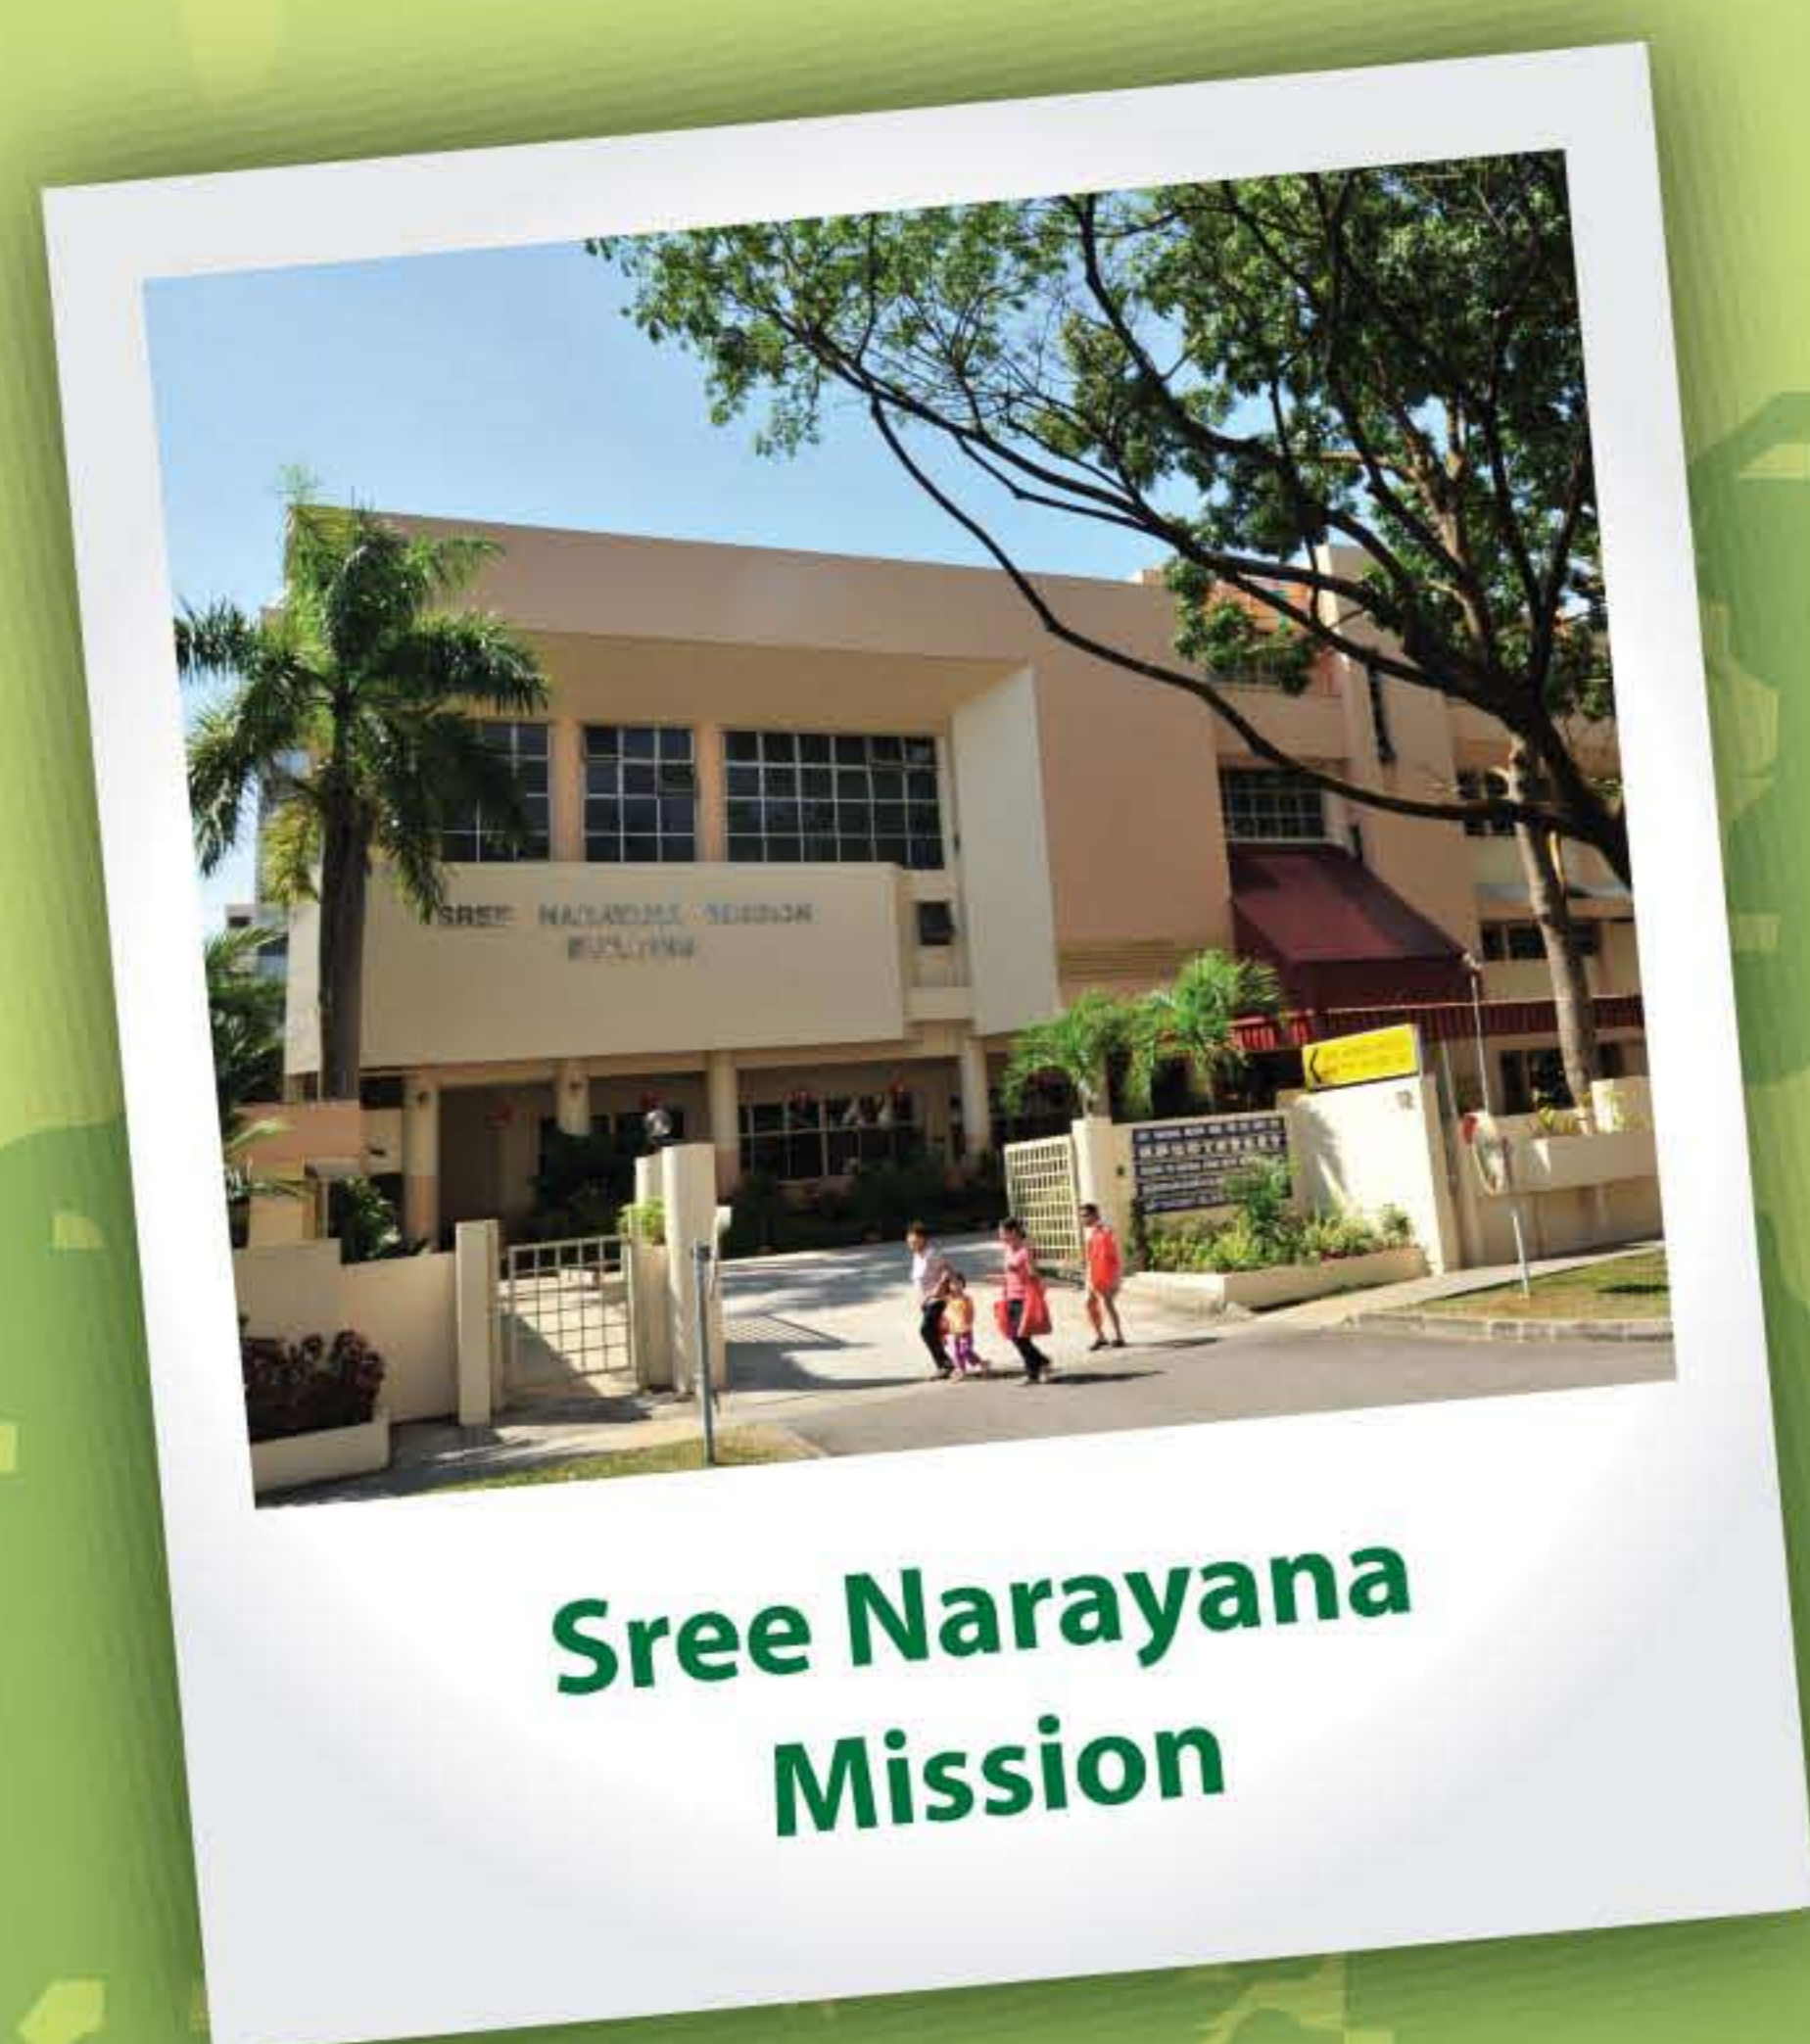

Admiralty House

9 Admiralty House
345 Old Nelson Road

Also known formerly as Canberra House and Nelson House, the Admiralty House was the strategic planning headquarters of the British armed forces during World War II, and continued to serve the British till the 1970s.

Sree Narayana Mission

10 Sree Narayana Mission
12 Yishun Avenue 5

The mission was started by Malayalee migrants and registered in 1948 to spread the teachings of its founding guru. Today it continues to provide social services to the community.

11 Naval Base Secondary School
901 Yishun Ring Road

Formerly located within the British naval base, it was then Singapore's first full-session school in the English medium and the first secondary school in Sembawang when it started in 1957.

Naval Base Secondary School